ARTICLE II

PROPERTY SUBJECT TO THIS DECLARATION

ADDITIONS THERETO

Section 1. The property -- The real property which is and shall be held, transferred, sold, conveyed and occupied subject to this Declaration is located in Harrison Township, Gloucester County, New Jersey, and is more particularly described in Exhibit "B".

(a) Additions by the Developer. The Developer, its successors and assigns, shall have the right to bring within the scheme of this Declaration additional properties in future stages of development which are adjacent or contiguous to the lands illustrated in Exhibit "A" or lands which are adjacent to or contiguous to lands illustrated in Exhibit "B".

(b) Other Additions. Notwithstanding the foregoing additional lands may also be annexed to the Property upon approval of said annexation by a majority of the members of the Association present and voting at a meeting of the Members, and if the Developer is still a member, upon written approval of the Developer.

The additions authorized under subsections (a) and (b) shall be made by recording one or more Supplementary Declarations with respect to the additional property.

ARTICLE III

COMMON AREA

Section 1. Obligations of the Association. The Association, subject to the rights of the Members set forth in this Declaration, shall be responsible for the exclusive management and control of the Common area and all improvements thereon (including furnishings and equipment related thereto) and shall keep the same in good, clean, attractive and sanitary condition, order and repair in compliance with standards set for the Woodland Run Homeowner Association.

Section 2. Member's Rights and/or Easement of Enjoyment. Subject to the provisions herein, every Member shall have a right and easement of enjoyment in and to the Common Area which shall be appurtenant to and shall pass with the title to every Lot.

Section 3. Extent of Members' Rights and/or Easements. The Members' Rights and/or Easements of enjoyment of the Common Area created hereby shall be subject to the following:

(a) the right of the Association to establish reasonable rules for the use of the Common Area;

(b) The right of the Association to dedicate or transfer all or any part of the Common Area to any public agency, authority or utility for such purposes and subject to such conditions as may be provided in the Association Charter.

(c) The right of the Association to improve the Common Area, subject to the approval of the Woodland Run Homeowner Association.

(d) Easements of record.

Section 4. Damage or Destruction- of Common Area by Owner. In the event any Common Area is damaged or destroyed by an Owner, a member of his family, or any of his guests, tenants, licensees or agents, such Owner hereby authorized the Association to repair said damaged area; the Association shall repair said damaged area in a good workmanlike manner and in conformance with the original plans and specifications of the area involved, or as the area may have been modified or altered subsequently by the Association in accordance with this Declaration. The Owner shall pay to the Association, within thirty (30) days following notice from the Association, the amount necessary for such repairs and such amount shall become a Special Assessment upon the Unit of said Owner until paid.

Section 5. Title to Common Area. The Developer may retain the legal title to areas designated as Common Area or portions thereof until such time as the Developer has completed improvements thereon, but notwithstanding any provisions herein, the Developer hereby covenants that the Developer shall convey the Common Area, or any portion thereof, to the Association promptly after the completion of construction of any improvements contemplated for the Common Area, or any portion thereof. The Association hereby covenants to accept all such conveyances. Members shall have all rights and obligations imposed by the Declaration with respect to the Common Area except for such restrictions as the Developer shall establish for reasons of safety or to facilitate construction of improvements. The Association shall not be liable for payment of taxes, insurance or maintenance for the Common Area or any portion thereof until the Common Area or any such portion is conveyed to it by the Developer.

ARTICLE IV

COVENANT FOR MAINTENANCE ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Creation of the Lien and Personal Obligation of Assessments.

The Developer hereby covenants, and each Owner of any Unit by acceptance of a deed thereof, whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed, is deemed to covenant and agree to pay to the Association all assessments and charges established herein and to be paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

All such assessments, together with interest thereon and costs of collection thereof, as hereinafter provided, shall be a charge on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the property against which each such assessment is made. Each such assessment, together with interest thereon and costs of collection thereof, shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the Owner of such property at the time when the assessment fell due.

Section 2. General Assessment.

(a) Purpose of Assessment. The general assessment levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote the recreation, health, safety and welfare of the Residents of the Property and in particular, for the improvement, maintenance, and operation of the Common Area, facilities and programs.

(b) Basis for Assessment. Residential Units shall be Subject to an annual assessment in an amount at a uniform annual rate for all Residential Units. The basis of assessment in any year shall be the same for all Residential Units and shall be selected by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Association Board.

(c) Rate of Assessment. The Association Board by a majority vote of the directors shall each year set an annual assessment rate sufficient to meet the obligations imposed by this Declaration.

Section 3. Special Assessment for Capital Improvement. In addition to the annual assessments authorized above, the Association may levy in any assessment year a special assessment applicable to that year and not more than the next two succeeding years for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair or replacement of a capital improvement upon the Common Area, including fixtures and personal property related thereto, providing that any such assessment shall have the assent of the Developer, so long as there is a Group B membership.

Section 4. Parcel Assessments. The Association may enforce the terms of a parcel declaration including levying in any assessment year any assessments established by a parcel declaration for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any maintenance, reconstruction, repair or replacement of the property of the parcel association or the capital improvements in the Parcel, if in the sole discretion of the Association, the parcel association has failed to levy a needed assessment or properly enforce the parcel declaration.

Section 5. Date of Commencement of Annual Assessments. The first annual assessment of any Unit shall commence and be prorated to the date such Unit becomes certified for occupancy. The Association shall fix the amount of the annual assessment against each Unit at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period. Written Notice of the annual assessment shall be sent to every Owner subject thereto. The due dates shall be established by the Association. The Association, shall, upon demand, and for a reasonable charge, furnish a certificate signed by an officer of the Association, setting forth whether the assessments on a specified lot have been paid.

Section 6. Effect of Non-payment of Assessments: Remedies of the Association. Any assessment referred to in Section 2, 4 and 5 of this Article IV, not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date may upon resolution of the Association Board bear interest from the due date at a percentage rate no greater than the current statutory maximum annual interest rate for the State of New Jersey which rate shall be set by the Association Board for each assessment period. The Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property. If the Association has provided for collection of assessments in installments, upon default in the payment of any one or more installments, the Association may accelerate payment and declare the entire balance of such assessment due and payable in full. No Owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non-use of the Common Area or abandonment of his Unit.

Section 7. Subordination of the Lien to Mortgage. The lien of the assessments provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage. Sale or transfer of any Lot shall not affect the assessment lien, however, the sale or transfer of any Lot pursuant to mortgage foreclosure or any proceeding in lieu thereof, shall extinguish the lien of such assessments as to payments which become due prior to such sale or transfer. No sale or transfer shall relieve such Lot from liability for any assessments thereafter coming due or from the lien thereof.

ARTICLE V

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Duration. The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the land for a term of twenty (20) years from the date hereof, after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years, unless prior to the expiration of the twenty (20) year term or of any ten (10) year extension period, the covenants and restrictions are expressly terminated by an instrument approved by a vote of not less than a majority of Members. A termination shall become effective when such instrument is recorded in the Office of the Clerk of Gloucester County.

Section 2. Amendment. This Declaration may be amended at any time by an instrument approved by a vote of not less than a majority of the Group A Members with the approval of and signed by the Developer if there is still a Group B membership in the Association. An amendment shall become effective when such instrument is recorded in the Office of the Clerk of Gloucester County.

Section 3. Enforcement. The Association, any Owner, the Developer or the Governing body of the municipality, subject to the association rules and regulations may seek to enforce either maintenance or any other rights or obligations which the Homeowner's Association can legally undertake pursuant to the statutes of the State of New Jersey and their restrictions contained in the association agreement and rules and regulations. This right shall extend to and include any right and/or enforcement to which any members or member of the public may be entitled to which the Governmental body of the municipality may likewise be entitled with the protection of the public interest. Failure to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

Section 4. Severability. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by judgment or court order shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 5. Conflicts. The Declaration shall not be taken as permitting any action or thing prohibited by the applicable zoning laws, or the laws, rules or regulations of any governmental authority, or by specific restrictions imposed by any deed or lease. In the event of any conflict, the most restrictive provision of such laws, rules, regulations, deeds, leases or the Declaration shall be taken to govern and control.

Section 6. Mergers. The properties, rights and obligations of the Association may, by operation of law, be transferred to another surviving or consolidated association, or alternatively, the properties, rights and obligations of another association may, by operation of law, be added to the properties, rights and obligations of the Association as a surviving corporation pursuant to a merger. The surviving or consolidated association may administer the covenants and restrictions established by this Declaration within the Property together with the covenants and restrictions established upon any other properties as one scheme. No such merger or consolidation, however, shall effect any revocation, change or addition to the covenants established within the Property by this Declaration and Supplementary Declarations.

Section 7. Captions. The captions of the sections herein are for convenience only and shall not affect the meanings or interpretation of the contents thereof.

Section 8. Governing Law. This Declaration shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

Amendment to Woodland Run Homeowners Association incorporated 02-16-90

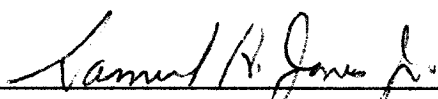

Purpose of this amendment is to establish a "neighborhood standard" prohibiting unsightly storage of items on a resident's property in view of a neighboring property so that the property values of all the community are protected. This amendment is effective on the date of recording in the Office of the Clerk of Gloucester County.

Amendment to Article V - GENERAL PROVISIONS

: Passed at WRHA annual meeting 10/30/01

Section 9. Neighborhood Standard: No trash, rubbish, building materials, unlicensed or inoperable vehicles, recreational vehicles, boats, or trailers shall be stored on any lot in a location that is visible to the neighboring community for any extended period of more than ten (10) days. The owner of the property shall not construe this declaration to prohibit temporary deposits of such items for pickup by governmental or other similar removal services. If the owner petitions the WRHA Board of Trustees for an extension, they can, by four affirmative votes, provide temporary hardship relief not to exceed 30 days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, as the President & Vice President of the Woodland Run Homeowners Association have signed this Amendment to the DECLARATION OF EASEMENTS, COVENANTS AND RESTRICTION on November 18, 2001

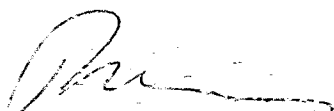

Samuel H. Jones, Jr. - President

Richard E. Thomas - Vice President

Be it remembered, that on this 18th day of November of 2001, before me, the undersigned attorney, personally appeared Samuel H. Jones, Jr. - President, & Richard E. Thomas - Vice President of the Woodland Run Homeowners Association. Who, I am satisfied are the persons named in and who executed this instrument, and thereupon they acknowledged that they signed, sealed, and delivered the same as their voluntary act and deed, for the uses and purposes therein stated.
